PRESS STATEMENT

Maldivian Red Crescent Extends " Nepal Solidarity Fund" and opens donation collection in Maldivian Rufiyaa

To provide humanitarian assistance to those affected by the flood disaster in the Rasuwa region of Nepal, the Maldivian Red Crescent established the "MRC Nepal Solidarity Fund" and opened it to the public on 26 August 2026. The initial duration for this fund was from 26 August 2026 to 03 September 2026.

However, based on requests from various parties and to provide the opportunity for as many people as possible to contribute, please be informed that the fund's duration has now been extended until 13 September 2026. Additionally, we would like to take this opportunity to inform that while donations were previously accepted in US Dollars only, arrangements have now been made to accept donations in Maldivian Rufiyaa (MVR) as well.

As of 02:00 PM of 02 September 2026, through the generous support of the Maldivian public, 2127.78 USD have been received for this fund.

The primary objective of the Maldivian Red Crescent's "MRC Nepal Solidarity Fund" is to support the humanitarian efforts carried out by the Nepal Red Cross Society to assist the people of Nepal in connection with the disaster. Following the closure of the fund, all collected funds are scheduled to be sent to the Nepal Red Cross Society through the IFRC's Emergency Appeal.

The main areas where the fund's aid will be utilized through the Nepal Red Cross Society include:

- Food and Basic Needs: Providing food, clean drinking water, clothing, and essential household items.
- Healthcare and First Aid: Providing first aid and primary healthcare services to the injured, evacuating patients to safe locations, and providing medical supplies.
- Shelter and Sanitation: Establishing emergency shelter and sanitation/toilet facilities.
- Search and Rescue: Search and rescue operations for missing persons, as well as delivering aid to isolated areas.

MRC welcomes collaboration of parties in a position to facilitate the conversion of Maldivian Rufiyaa to US Dollars, which would enable us to open donations to be accepted in Maldivian Rufiyaa.

Details of the accounts to which donations can be deposited are provided below:

Situation update summary from the Nepal Red Cross as of 01 September 2026

Due to the sudden and severe flooding in Nepal, approximately 1.6 million people have been affected across various districts of the country, particularly in Rasuwa and Nuwakot. In this incident, 987 deaths and 3,916 missing persons have been reported, while 2,466 people have been relocated to 27 temporary shelters.

Furthermore, essential infrastructure, including 45 bridges, electricity, and critical telecommunication services, has suffered severe damage or has been completely destroyed. In the operations conducted in response to this, 11,814 people (including 253 foreign nationals) have been evacuated to safe areas.

Additionally, the Nepal Red Cross Society, in coordination with the IFRC and relevant government authorities, is providing assistance across various sectors to those affected. Ongoing recovery efforts include the distribution of food and non-food relief items via air and land, the establishment of emergency water and sanitation facilities, Restoring Family Links (RFL) services, the distribution of dignity kits, and the provision of psychological first aid. Setting up mobile charging stations to help stranded individuals re-establish communication is also included among these efforts.
